Is it in the length of the sentences? Angels and Demons by Dan Brown was like this for me.

He is currently working on a sit-com as well as a novel. There was a second well-dressed man who was within feet of this attack standing there lighting his pipe. They both believe in giving people a second chance.

The gripping story of a young boy and his family, driven from their home by war, of my best reads in my entire life. After the great The Final Girls, Riley Sager returns with this horror fest of a psychological thriller with the re-occurring themes of the damaged, guilt ridden, and haunted woman, the sole survivor of a shattering set of events where 3 girls on a rich girls summer camp disappear from their Dogwood cabin to never be heard of .
