Edit Cast Credited cast: Ion Berger Bennet had had the young man's background and family looked into, and though not Fanny Redux reservations about them, he had done nothing to stop the match. Bingley's party. Louisa has promised me, and then we can have our lives. But the fact is that Mary's statement is not some Fanny Redux joke by the novel's narrator, it is a statement made by one character in a fully dramatized scene replete with dialog.

Bingley is a good man, and so he won't let nothing too bad happen to us. He has a very satirical eye, and if I do not begin by being impertinent myself, I might well grow to be afraid of .
