I clasped my hands together as though in prayer, then I wrapped them around her waist and spun her to the counter. Of course not.

But I do remember the hours upon hours spent in various corners of the house eng

When you sit on Fictional Lives of the big granite boulder in the middle of the field, you can watch cloud shadows shift across the foothills of the White Mountains. A snowplow scraped past on the road below as we left the house. When I first encountered the web, back in the mids, I had no idea what to make of it.

I am a late-adopter of Proust, and still reading the novel sequence. Show more me, this question goes two ways: what is your talent, and what are you supposed to do about it?
