Enjoyanew, curated short story every episode. Also, location was a large issue. Can you get much writing done over the summer? It certainly questions its narrator at every turn, but then again, the narrator is also ostensibly doing the questioning! In the original Buck Rogers book, the protagonist falls asleep under the influence of a gas in a mine, sleeps for four centuries and wakes to find America under the rule of Mongol invaders - whereupon he places himself at the head of the freedom fighters.

This group was so large, men in suits had to stand back and let them pass. Some of them had been doing this for decades, I asked. Please note: that by submitting to us, you will be added to our Cloud 9 Publishing newsletter email list.
