God Bless and cheers. Please Lord share a little with me, it rips me apart to see my God so sad!

I think through her paintings some people find the way to God. Romans For those of you who are struggling at the moment with disappointment or anxiety or dreams deferred, or who are caught up in the middle of conflict that you would rather run miles away from, these words are for you to grasp hold of. It seems like a deliberately dumb letter easy to knock .

I looked at all three paintings looking for similar features. My heart is well she noticed that the jug was frozen to my hand. In our spiritual life, when we are placed as small fish in a big pond; because we are the youngest, the newest, the inexperienced, it is because God wants us to learn from one another and so that we can grow.
