It is not clear why verifi- ability through legitimate sources and evidence should be a central component of history-writing in the early modern period. Ltd One consequence of this dynamic exchange was that a colonial modernity required a reimagined literary past, which, once inscribed in print, engendered a new literary-historical sensibility.

Refine Your Search Year. Only a few years earlier, it would have been unthinkable that the Crown would allow one of its most prized possessions to slip out of its hands.
This view of history as a rational science was itself new in Britain. However, over and above these duties, Mackenzie began to collect, record, and reconstruct South Indian history.
