The Commission's report was largely completed before the appalling attacks of 11 September on New York and Washington DC, and was not conceived as addressing the kind of challenge posed by such attacks. Concerning the doctrine of estoppel, in order to view its utility and potential applicability, it had needs be applied in tandem with the maxim ubi ius, ubi remedium : An assurance is furnished by any state which ratifies human rights treaties, or which refrains from protesting regarding the reception of human rights norms into customary international law.

Today a number of NATO members, especially France, are no longer prepared to of Mahoney-Norris provide a thought-provoking exploration of civic, economic, environmental, and maritime, health, and cyber security issues in this era of globalization, including thorough consideration of the policy implications for the United States. But an honorable commitment to humanitarian intervention should not mesmerize the rest of us into supporting a duplicitous Administration bent on erasing the chastening memory of Vietnam, reawakening the latent messianic ambitions of Americans and disguising how hard it is to maintain public oversight of secretive military operations abroad.

In a few cases, regimes have launched campaigns of terror on their own population. Article 22 of the UN Charter has a particularly important part to play in this connection.
