What made it particularly difficult was that we were working with a show that did not have a standing set. I thought it was very worthy of being rediscovered.

They also had to be able to have enough time to be on the sets six or seven hours a day. The plot is simple: Carl played by Michael Kramer a decent teen who feels estranged from his distracted parents, befriends a miscreant from the poorer section of the community Richie, played by Matt Dillon. Dancing on the Edge is a British television drama written and directed by Stephen Poliakoff and produced by the BBC about a black jazz band in London in the early s.
